

More Trouble for Rowan.

Dr. Henry Logan, father of the two boys murdered by Craig Toliver and his gang at Morehead last week, and Morgan McClurg, both of whom have been confined in the Lexington jail on charges of conspiring to kill Judge Cole and others in Rowan County, were pardoned Tuesday by the Governor. There was intense excitement at Morehead when the announcement of the pardon was made.

Dr. Logan came down on the train last evening as far as Johnson Junction on his way home. He says he intends leaving for the West as soon as he can see his children. More trouble, however, may be expected.
